

Camden Town Council Meeting
October 30, 2019
Camden-Town Office

Vice-President Mark Schock called the Special Council Meeting to order at 6:00. Present were Member Andrew Robison, Clerk-Treasurer Pat Casserly, and Utility Superintendent Jerry Snively. Council President Brent Deel was absent.

Following a brief discussion, Mr. Robison made the motion to hire Cody Walker as the Utility Assistant starting at $11.00 per hour, without benefits. Following the 90 day probationary period, benefits will be offered and the salary increased to $11.50 per hour. A 2% raise will be given as each certification is achieved. Mr. Schock called Mr. Walker to inform him of the decision and to discuss a start date. Mr. Walker's first day will be November 11th. He was reminded to bring proper identification for completing the I-9 form.

Mr. Schock mentioned Steve Pearson would be willing to help with the fall leaf pickup, if needed.

Discussion was held on restricting parking in front of 221 W Main Street. No decision was made.

The meeting adjourned at 6:25.
